The exact wording of the proposal is:

(The deleted section, or amendments are highlighted in bold, cursive text)

All members wishing to enter worlds or euro events must have completed the minimum number of rounds in their respective national championships the previous year . If no national championship has taken place no places will be offered for that class .

Remark In order to get the sense of the proposal please add a small remark

With no national championship taking place no revenue has been gained . Therefore this is to encourage participation .
